Good morning,

Hope this email finds you well after that stormy weather!

This week is Catholic Schools Week, 21st - 27th January. The theme for the week this year is Catholic Schools: Communities of Service. In Scoil Bhríde, we model love, kindness and care towards ourselves, others, God and creation. In this way, our school is a community of service. There are daily themes for each day, teachers will be integrating these daily themes into their Religion lessons this week. This Friday, we intend to celebrate our Grandparents and thank God for all that they do for us, we will be going to Mass on Friday, it would be lovely if Grandparents could join us at Mass, as we also remember very specially our Grandparents in heaven. After Mass, parents and Grandparents are invited back to the school for tea and treats, please help spread the word.

Slán go fóill,

M. Rohan.
